the attention of the Telegraph Company to the following facts:

1. The office at this place was in the first instance established by a subscription of the citizens, to pay for original outlay by the Telegraph Company.

2. We are informed by the brother of the recent operator here, (Mr. G. W. Sturgeon himself being absent from the village) that the receipts of the office have averaged about forty dollars per month during its continuance.

3. It is well-known to the Company, that Mr. G. W. Sturgeon's official and other engagements called him away from this place at least one-half of the time; and it is well known to us, that in numerous instances, important and paying messages could not be sent, because the operator was thus absent.

4. We are told by the merchants here, that they were in the habit, especially during the busy season, of receiving more messages than they sent; and, consequently, the office paid the Company in messages of this kind.

We feel satisfied that the citizens would be willing to guarantee the office a paying support, and we hope some arrangement will be made on the subject. It is unfortunate that Orangeburg has no Board of Trade, to which the matter could be referred for action.

Interesting.

We publish below, an original contribution from an esteemed old citizen of this District, living in Limestone neighborhood. He writes to us as follows: "I am now 65 years old this month, myself and old woman living alone, having lost three sons in the cruel war."

Our friend is in destitute circumstances, being quite infirm, and only able to go about on crutches. He is a good copyist; writes a plain open hand; and would be very glad to write for any one, who desires assistance of that kind.

Here are the lines contributed:

SEYMOUR AND BLAIR
September now is on the march,
October's drawing near;
November is the glorious time
For SEYMOUR and for BLAIR!

Then let us rise at early dawn
And to the polls repair;
And spite of all our foes, we'll go
For SEYMOUR and for BLAIR!

The Democrats are gaining ground,
And, having fought to fear,
We boldly go unto the polls,
For SEYMOUR and for BLAIR!

And if we are defeated then,
We will not yet despair;
For justice will bear away at last,
Our days will yet be clear.

But let us trust a mighty God,
Who knows what's right and fair;
And march along in cheerful bands,
For SEYMOUR and for BLAIR.

The time is fast approaching,
The day is drawing near;
When we will shout the victory
Of SEYMOUR and of BLAIR.

Military vs Civil.

THE WAS GRANT'S MINIONS PLAY THEIR FRANKS.

We publish the subjoined correspondence, to show what we may expect, if Grant should be elected. Our readers all remember the outrages of O'Connor, and they will now see how he was bolstered up by the HEAD-TY-RANT of two months ago.

ORANGEBURG, S. C., July 9, 1868.

Captain Louis V. Casario,

Act'g Asst. Adjt. General.

Sir—I think it but justice to myself and to my fellow-citizens of this Town, to let the General Commanding know of the scandalous conduct of Lieutenant Stephen O'Connor, of the 8th U. S. Infantry, towards myself and four other citizens of Orangeburg, on yesterday, the 8th inst. I feel that this duty is more incumbent upon me from the fact that I have the honor to be the Intendant of this Town under military appointment, by Special Orders No. —, &c.

I will relate the circumstances. Some time since, a disturbance occurred near this place, in the course of which one Earle McCord, a colored man, was shot, it is said, by Mr. W. V. Izlar. A friend of Mr. Izlar asked me to be one of his Bail for his appearance to answer the charge, and I consented. Mr. Izlar was arrested, taken before a Judge on habeas corpus, and bailed in the sum of three thousand dollars to appear before the next session of the Court.

This was some time ago, and Lieut. O'Connor was present, when Mr. Izlar was released on Bail, in due form of law. On the 7th inst. Lieut. O'Connor returned to this place, and because he was unable to obtain Mr. Izlar by extending a request to his Counsel for his appearance in Orangeburg, Lieut. O'Connor adopted the arbitrary alternative of arresting myself and four other citizens, not one of whom, I am satisfied, knew of the whereabouts of Mr. Izlar, except that he resided in the District, some 14 or 15 miles from this place. Not only so, but this officer, I am sorry to say, disgraced the uniform of the army by the abusive manner in which he addressed himself to us, and to our friends, who protested with him against such an outrage.

As far as I am personally concerned, occupying the position of United States Commissioner, and therefore being a peace officer of the Federal Government, I deem the outrageous conduct of Lieut. O'Connor not only a personal wrong of the grossest character, but an indignity to the civil service of the Nation; and the object of this communication is to request an inquiry, that the fellow-officers of Lieut. S. O'Connor may have the opportunity of deciding whether he has acted as becomes an officer of the United States Army.

Very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
G. H. CORNELSON,
Intendant of Orangeburg.

HD'QRS 2d MILITARY DISTRICT,
Charleston, S. C., July 31, 1868.

Mr. Geo. H. Cornelison and Others,
Orangeburg, S. C.

GENTLEMEN: Referring to your communication of the 9th inst., I am instructed by the Commanding General to inform you that after a reference to the Commanding Officer, Columbia, the complaints have proved too groundless for action.

Very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
LOUIS V. CASARIO,
A. D. C. and A. A. G.

Meeting of the Central Democratic Club.

A general attendance of delegates representing all the various precinct clubs, met at the Court House on Monday 7th inst., Captain Wynnemaker presiding.

A new Executive Committee were appointed, the terms of all Standing Committees having expired; the following gentlemen comprise the Committee, Samuel Dibble, John A. Hamilton, Mortimer Glover, J. C. Pike, J. P. Harley, F. H. W. Briggman, and T. C. Albergotti.

A report was received from Colonel Frederick respecting the proposed mass meeting for the ratification of the recent nominations, which proposed arrangements for the demonstration suitable to the occasion. It was left wholly with the Committee of Arrangements appointed by the Orangeburg Club, to prepare and arrange all preliminaries, and our good people may expect on the 20th of October, not only good speeches, and a sight of the distinguished leaders of the party, but a rousing Barbecue, and lots of cicateras. The latter, they had better add to, as much as they please.

At any rate we will have a quiet day, rowdiness and outside interference being specially warned off. D. Wyatt Aiken, Esq., will address the Democracy by special arrangement at the Club House on the 20th, at 10 o'clock. Pump on the 30th, and at Rocky Grove, Oct. 1st. All persons who wish to be edified and instructed will embrace this favorable opportunity. Captain P. Kitchens represented a new club (Pine Log). This club sends an accomplished and earnest delegate. QUELQUEFOIS.

Ebenezer Democratic Club.

MR. EDITOR:—A portion of the citizens in the vicinity of Smoak's Mill, having assembled at that place on Saturday, 5th inst., with a view of forming themselves into a Democratic Club, on motion of Captain B. H. Barton, Mr. H. L. Smoak was called to the chair, and J. J. Salley requested to act as Secretary.

Those present, having enrolled their names, it was moved and seconded that we constitute ourselves an organization to be known as the Ebenezer Democratic Club in the Fork of Edisto, auxiliary to the Central Club at the Court House, and that the future meetings of the club be held at the School house, near Ebenezer Church.

Major J. J. Salley offered the following:

Resolved, That we, the members of this Club, pledge ourselves to support the principles enunciated in the platform adopted by the Democratic Convention which assembled in the city of New York on the Fourth of July; that we will do all in our power to secure the election of its nominees for the offices of President and Vice-President, and exert our influence to induce others to do the same.

There being no further business, the Club adjourned to meet at the school-house near Ebenezer Church, on the third Saturday in this month, at three o'clock, P. M., when a more thorough organization will be effected by the election of additional officers,
J. J. SALLEY,
Secretary.

APPALLING DEATH OF A SON OF REV. DR. STILES.—A correspondent of the Lynchburg Virginian, writing from Alleghany Springs, August 31, says: "A shocking accident occurred here to-day, which resulted in the death of one of the visitors. A party, consisting of about a dozen ladies and gentlemen, went on an excursion to the falls not far from the Springs. Among them was Mr. R. R. Stiles, a son of the Rev. Dr. Stiles. Soon after the party had arrived at the falls, Mr. Stiles, to amuse himself, climbed a tall pine tree which stands on the brink of the stream. Having gone up a distance of probably forty or fifty feet, he went out on a large limb overhanging the rocky gorge beneath, and while there holding to another limb overhead, he lost his footing, and fell to the chasm below, the bed of which is solid rock. Of course the result was instant death. His head was crushed, his right leg shattered, and his body otherwise mangled. Life was extinct almost as soon as he was reached by his friends, who were in a few feet of him. The effect was appalling on those who were present and witnessed the terrible affair.

[From the Metropolitan Record.]
Let Us Have Peace.

So says Ulysses.
Who is hindering peace?
Who perpetuates the spirit of strife and tears upon afresh the wounds of war?

The party that has taken Ulysses for its standard-bearer.
The party that is inciting negro hatred against the white race.

The party that has established a negro government over eight millions of whites.
The party that encourages negro mobs to hunt down black men for opposing despotism.

The party that proposes to arm the blacks and put new shackles on the whites.
The party that has organized the blacks for violence and plunder.

The party that palliates negro attacks upon Democratic meetings.
The party that tells the negro he must protect himself at all hazards, and gives him arms to shoot his neighbors.

The party that exasperates the white man by placing negroes over him.
The party that says the war ended too soon, as its organ, the Tribune, said only a few days ago.

The party that says, through its organ, that "the rebellion should have been crushed inch by inch, till its leaders had died in battle or fled from the country."

"Till its armies had dwindled into bands of robbers."
"Till its had been driven into the swamps to starve and perish."

The party that is continually hatching new schemes to madden a powerless people.
The party that has tried to disgrace the leaders of the South, knowing that when it struck the leaders it wounded the followers.

The party that has sent thieves and convicts to make laws for honorable men.
The party that sent murderers to rule these men with the bayonet.

The party that counts about national honor, while it lives by plunder.
The party that has brought mourning to a million firesides.

The party that spread desolation over the fairest part of the land.
The party that is stained with the blood of over a million men.

The party whose present leader refused to exchange Northern soldiers for Southern prisoners.
Who left them in Southern prisons till they died of wounds and starvation.

Who wrote to the agent of exchange that "not one more man must be exchanged."
The party spends Northern money to support vagabond negroes in the South.

The party that made war on women, and children, and filled dungeons with free-born Americans.
The party that is laboring to bring on a war of races in the South, so that it may again clutch the throats of the whites.

The party that began its career with Bibles and bayonets in the White House.
The party that trampled upon law, and dispersed courts with the sword.

This is the party that echoes the cry of its leader,
"Let us have peace!"
Americans, be not deceived. That party means,
"Let us have war!"

The platform said to have been presented to Chief Justice Chase by the members of the National Democratic Convention, and accepted by him contains fifteen separate planks. Synopsized, it declares equal and exact justice to all men, to be applied within constitutional limits; extends a hearty welcome to the Southern States; recognizes the death of slavery; leaves the question of suffrage to the States; favors universal amnesty; opposes centralization and the encroachment of one department of the government upon the rights of another; condemns military governments; insists upon a reduction of the army and navy; encourages Canadian annexation; demands the protection of American citizens abroad; asserts the necessity of a reform in the conduct of our Indian affairs; maintains the dignity of labor; avows "that honor and duty alike require the honest payment of the public debt and the faithful performance of all public obligations; but we do not admit that creditors, more than any other men, are entitled to special favor in the interpretation of the laws, by which their rights and public duties are determined." The remaining propositions recognize the need of a reform in the conduct of public affairs, and invite the co-operation of all patriotic citizens who are willing to unite in carrying it out.

COTTON CROP OF ALABAMA.—The Montgomery Advertiser says that, in conversing with an old and experienced planter who has seen much of the growing crop in the adjacent counties, he said that the crop was more seriously injured than the planters generally suppose. The damage from the army worm and the boll worm together was considerable, but the long and continued rains in the early part of August destroyed the hopes of a late crop and caused many of the matured bolls to rot. A rainy August is always fatal to the cotton crop.—Our informant gives it as his opinion that the crops of Lowndes and Montgomery Counties will not yield over one-sixth of the crop's usual average.

The Rads give it up that, of the Cabinet, at least, Randall, Browning, McCulloch and Welles are in favor of Seymour, while Seward and Schofield are against Grant and Colfax. It costs them many tears to see an old leader like Seward deserting them, and they have a queer way of chronicling his departure. Richmond Enquirer.

A gentleman, whose office adjoined that of the Citizen, said he once knew Gen. Halpine to enter the editorial room at five o'clock in the afternoon, commence writing vigorously, and continue through the night, being found hard at work when his neighbor came to unlock his own door at nine next morning. His face was suffused with blood, every drop of which seemed to have found its way to his brain—his head was bound up with wet towels, and the veins on his brow swollen to a fearful degree. When the next issue of the Citizen came out, with the exception of a few columns on the first page, the paper was filled with the articles of Gen. Halpine. Poems, story, essays, paragraphs, leader, editorials of all kinds, were his own—the products mainly of those seventeen hours of continued labor.

Tribute of Respect.

At the regular communication of Branchville Lodge A. F. M., held September 5th A. L. L., 5688, the following resolutions in regard to the death of Brother JOSEPH DUKES were adopted, and ordered to be printed on the minutes of the Lodge:

Resolved, That in the death of Brother JOSEPH DUKES, the Lodge has lost one of its most useful members, and the brethren have lost from among them, the example of the just, the upright, the unwavering man and man, who bent not beneath the attacks of adversity, nor gave way to the temptations of prosperity, but pursued the straight course of this way, standing erect amid the fiercest tempests of fortune, and, like a tall column, lifting his head above the frowns of envy and the shadows of malignity; and as necessary support, the liberal, temperate, truthful, and free man, who was devoted to the craft, and received by his request, a meek and quiet life, and a peaceful end conferred on a Mason.

Resolved, That a blank page in the minutes be devoted to his memory, and that a copy of these resolutions be sent to his family, and that a copy of condolence in this, their old and true friend, and that these resolutions be published in the ORANGEBURG NEWS.
From the minutes.
